RACE 1

Racing TVGoing: Soft (Yielding in places Hurdles course)

A right-handed track with a circuit of just over ten furlongs. There is a steep incline to the finish, but unless the ground is particularly testing the track is sharp in character, favouring handily-ridden horses. The chase course has seven fences to a circuit, with the final two fences very close together followed by a run-in of well over two furlongs. The hurdle course is laid out inside the chase course, until the final hurdle situated in the short finishing straight of little more than a furlong, and is even sharper in character than the chase course.

TIMEFORM VIEW:

JUMPING JET makes her hurdling/yard bow on the back of a ready Gowran bumper victory and looks the way to go here at the chief expense of fellow newcomer Coole Og for the Willie Mullins team who should ensure Gordon Elliott's mare doesn't have things all her own way. Lady Temperance appeals as the pick of the remainder on the back of her encouraging Cork fifth.

TIMEFORM VIEW:

SAMS PROFILE was third in one of the hottest maiden chases of last season. He followed that by winning a Grade 2 hurdle and should take a bit of stopping if ready to roll. The Bosses Oscar was ultimately a well-beaten second on his chase debut but his hurdle ability suggests he's sure to do better and Gordon Elliott has won the last 3 runnings of this so he's feared most ahead of Alfa Mix.

HILLTOP SUPREME and Sir Bob are both potentially well treated back chasing after improved performances over hurdles. That's particularly the case with the former who returns to the larger obstacles from a mark 12 lb lower than the one he defied over timber at Cork in March. TIMEFORM VIEW:

CHINX OF LIGHT made a promising start when runner-up in a big field at Punchestown in the spring and can go one better with a fair bit of improvement in the pipeline. Hurdling-newcomer Favori de Champdou has a long absence to overcome but still rates a big threat on his winning bumper form. Barbary Master is another who can have a say provided he bounces back from his below-par Cork showing.

TIMEFORM VIEW:

YOUNG FITZY has progress with each of his three runs over hurdles and is fancied to follow up his recent Tramore victory now he steps into handicap company.
