SKY BET SUPREME NOVICES' HURDLE (Grade 1) (1) 4yo+
£135,000 2m87y (3300 Metres)

Going: Good to Soft (Soft in places)

Left handed, undulating. Stiff fences that place a premium on sound jumping. The last half mile is uphill, although the lead changes hands on the run-in less frequently than might be expected. Prominent-racers often fare well on the chase course, especially in races up to 3m. On the New Course, the hurdles track has just two flights in the last six furlongs, resulting in more emphasis on stamina; large-field races over two miles often go to hold-up horses, as there can be a tendency to go for home too soon. Jockeys often steer a wide course in the winter months searching for better ground and this can lead to trouble in-running towards the stand rail in the straight.

Pace Information: Very Strong

1	BRING ON THE NIGHT (16)	t	81
	1 5 11-7 73.0kg W. P. Mullins, Ireland B. J. Cooper Fairly useful dual-Flat winner in 2020 for Andre Fabre. Expertly prepared to make winning hurdles debut at Naas 16 days ago, and while this a totally different ask, he's a nice prospect. Tongue tied.
2	CONSTITUTION HILL (66) (D)		98
	11 5 11-7 73.0kg Nicky Henderson Nico de Boinville Irish point recruit who has looked something out of the ordinary under Rules in two runs at Sandown, his debut effort backed up by the clock and his Tolworth success all class. Very exciting prospect.
3	DYSART DYNAMO (IRE) (58) (D)	t	99
	1-111 6 11-7 73.0kg W. P. Mullins, Ireland P. Townend Free-going sort but looked a bit special when extending unbeaten run to 4 in Moscow Flyer Novices' Hurdle at Punchestown. Limit not yet reached and could be a tough nut to crack.
4	JONBON (FR) (52) (D)	★	100
	1-111 6 11-7 73.0kg Nicky Henderson Aidan Coleman Brother to top-class Douvan and could be of similar standard himself, stretching his unbeaten record to 5 (including a point) in Grade 2 at Haydock in January. Well-run race would really suit. Player.
5	JPR ONE (IRE) (31) (D)		87
	1210 5 11-7 73.0kg Colin Tizzard Brendan Powell Winner of novice hurdles at Exeter and Taunton this winter and even better form when narrowly denied here in between. No impact in the Betfair Hurdle and this a tough race to bounce back in.
6	KILCRUIT (IRE) (43) (D)	t	96
	2/112-1231 7 11-7 73.0kg W. P. Mullins, Ireland Mr P. W. Mullins Second in the Champion Bumper last year and made winning hurdles debut in April. Suffered brace of surprising defeats in December but, back in trip and tongue tied, he got it right at Punchestown.
7	MIGHTY POTTER (FR) (78) (D)		97
	1-131 5 11-7 73.0kg Gordon Elliott, Ireland J. W. Kennedy Benefited enormously from experience in Royal Bond Novices' Hurdle at Fairyhouse when resuming winning ways in Future Champions Novices' Hurdle at Leopardstown. Will stay further and a likeable type.
8	SHALLWEHAVEONEMORE (FR) (17) (D, BF)		92
	1-2412 5 11-7 73.0kg Gary Moore Joshua Moore Won sole bumper start and opened account over hurdles at third attempt with a bloodless display at Sandown in February. Similar form when second in the Dovecote but he could do with settling down.
9	SILENT REVOLUTION (IRE) (131) (D)		86
	213-1 6 11-7 73.0kg Paul Nicholls Harry Cobden Winning bumper form pretty ordinary but displayed willing attitude to make successful reappearance/hurdles bow (having had a wind operation) at Newbury in November. Off since and this asking a lot.

BETTING FORECAST:

9-4 Dysart Dynamo, 5-2 Constitution Hill, 5-1 Jonbon, 13-2 Kilcruit, 12-1 Mighty Potter, 40-1 bar

TIMEFORM VIEW:

Another small-field Supreme but a cracking curtain-raiser nonetheless. The Nicky Henderson-trained pair JONBON and Constitution Hill defend unbeaten records, and in the hope the former gets a good pace to aim at for the first time in his hurdles career, he appeals as being the bet at the prices. Dysart Dynamo looked a bit special at Punchestown and has to be feared.

1	BLUE LORD (FR) (38) (D)	t	99
	123F-3111 7 11-4 71.7kg W. P. Mullins, Ireland  P. Townend Smart novice hurdler last term and has made a perfect start over fences, making it 3-3 when fending off Riviere d'Etel by ½ length in Leopardstown Grade 1 last month. Bold bid looks assured.
2	BRAVE SEASCA (FR) (31) (D)		94
	4/41-61113 7 11-4 71.7kg Venetia Williams Charlie Deutsch Completed a handicap chase hat-trick this winter. Ran well again but seemed to have his limitations exposed when, in receipt of 5 lb, he was beaten 5½ lengths by Edwardstone in Kingmaker at Warwick.
3	COEUR SUBLIME (IRE) (47) (D)	t	94
	130/47-231 7 11-4 71.7kg Henry de Bromhead, Ireland  Rachael Blackmore Smart hurdler who ran very well behind Ferny Hollow on first 2 chase starts (including Grade 1 third) before making the most of a drop back to maiden company at Gowran. More to come from him.
4	EDWARDSTONE (31) (D)	★	100
	353-81111 8 11-4 71.7kg Alan King Tom Cannon Has laid down his marker as a serious Arkle candidate with victories in Grade 1 Henry VIII at Sandown in December and Grade 2s at Kempton and Warwick since. Looks the one to beat.
5	GABYNAKO (FR) (79) (D)	t	96
	30U-52123 7 11-4 71.7kg Gavin Patrick Cromwell, Ireland Keith Donoghue Excellent second to Beacon Edge in Grade 1 Drinmore at Fairyhouse (2½m) in November. Below-par third at Limerick on Boxing Day. Tongue tied first time. Shorter trip a worry. Supplemented for £8,000.
6	HAUT EN COULEURS (FR) (38)		97
	13-31F 5 11-4 71.7kg W. P. Mullins, Ireland  B. J. Cooper Twice placed in Grade 1 company as a juvenile hurdler and made winning start over fences at Leopardstown over Christmas. Fell early in Grade 1 there since. Remains an exciting prospect.
7	RED ROOKIE (70) (D)		87
	11/514-2F1 7 11-4 71.7kg Emma Lavelle  Tom Bellamy Bumper/hurdle winner and quickly an even better chaser, bouncing back from a fall at Ascot to win a 2m Hereford novice in January. Open to further progress but this surely asking too much.
8	SAINT SAM (FR) (38)	h	95
	12422-513 5 11-4 71.7kg W. P. Mullins, Ireland  S. F. O'Keefe Last year's Fred Winter runner-up who made winning start over fences at Fairyhouse. Behind Blue Lord and Riviere d'Etel in Leopardstown Grade 1 since but that was a good run so early in chase career.
9	WAR LORD (GER) (51) (D)		93
	3047-1121 7 11-4 71.7kg Colin Tizzard Brendan Powell Only defeat in 4 chase starts came when 16 lengths second to Edwardstone in Henry VIII at Sandown in December. Likeable type but he'll surely come up short here.
10	MAGIC DAZE (IRE) (100) (D, BF)		91
	312-4313 6 10-11 68.5kg Henry de Bromhead, Ireland  D. J. O'Keefe Easy winner of Cork maiden chase in November. Her jumping wasn't quite so polished when third in Grade 2 there next time but she remains open to progress for yard which won this with a mare in 2020.

11

RIVIERE D'ETEL (FR) (38) (D, BF)
137-11122 5 10-11 | 68.5kg
Gordon Elliott, Ireland
J. W. Kennedy
Easily won first 3 starts over fences. Even better form when second in pair of Leopardstown Grade 1s since, going down by ½ length to Blue Lord latterly (may have won but for mistake last). Player.

11 DECLARED RUNNERS

BETTING FORECAST:

10-3 Edwardstone, 4-1 Blue Lord, 5-1 Riviere D'etel, 7-1 Haut En Couleurs, 8-1 Saint Sam, 11-1 Magic Daze, 20-1 Gabynako, 25-1 Coeur Sublime, 40-1 bar

TIMEFORM VIEW:

The likeable EDWARDSTONE was foot perfect when making short work of smart opposition in the Kingmaker and can see of the Irish challenge, headed by Riviere d'Etel, who may have beaten Blue Lord at Leopardstown last time with a cleaner jump at the last. Haut En Couleurs came to grief early in that same Leopardstown race but is another who leaves the impression he can make his mark at this level.

1	FRODON (FR) (38) (CD)	t		98
	14151-147 10 11-12 75.3kg Paul Nicholls Top-class front-running chaser under this rider, his 3 Grade 1 wins including the 2019 Ryanair. Successful on last go in a handicap over C&D off this mark in October 2020. Fascinating contender.		Bryony Frost
2	LOSTINTRANSLATION (IRE) (24) (C, D)	s+t		97
	3/3PSP-15P 10 11-3 71.2kg Colin Tizzard Brendan Powell Grade 1 winner and third in the 2020 Gold Cup but far more blow-outs since, disappointing twice since landing thin Ascot Grade 2 on return this term. First go in a handicap. Cheekpieces also go on.
3	DOES HE KNOW (24) (C)			97
	1R85-1121 7 11-0 69.9kg Kim Bailey David Bass Has made up into a smart novice chaser, winning for a third time in 4 starts in testing 3m Ascot Grade 2 last month, showing bags of stamina. Plenty of Cheltenham experience and got to be respected.
4	BEN DUNDEE (IRE) (78)			98
	5-0782472 10 10-9 67.6kg Andrew Lynch, Ireland D. E. Mullins Good runs in handicap chases at the last 2 Festivals (unlucky eye-catcher 12 months ago) and back to form when beaten narrowly by School Boy Hours at Leopardstown over Christmas. Likely to go well.
5	NOBLE YEATS (IRE) (38)			98
	61-1469P2 7 10-9 67.6kg Emmet Mullins, Ireland Mr Sam Waley-Cohen Galway maiden chase winner in October and back to form when second to Ahoy Senior in 4-runner Wetherby Grade 2 over 3m last month. Changed hands since. Not the most fluent of jumpers.
6	FLOUEUR (FR) (30)	t		99
	663-P3313 7 10-8 67.1kg Gordon Elliott, Ireland Jordan Colin Gainford (3lb/1kg) No match for Galopin des Champs before opening chase account in 21f Fairyhouse maiden in January. Fine run behind Death Duty in Punchestown handicap since. Third in the Martin Pipe last year. Player.
7	FOXY JACKS (IRE) (37)	s		97
	6-14987P2 8 10-7 66.7kg M. F. Morris, Ireland Jonathan Moore Won a valuable 20f handicap at the Punchestown Festival last spring and best run since when second in another big-field contest at Leopardstown last month. Will need a career-best to take this.
8	DOCTOR DUFFY (IRE) (30) (D)	s		96
	F58-2008U 9 10-7 66.7kg Charles Byrnes, Ireland Liam Quinlan (5lb/2kg) Dual chase winner at up to this trip last season. Rather quiet this term, though better signs until unseating 2 out in Punchestown handicap chase won by Death Duty latest. Could revive.
9	TEA CLIPPER (IRE) (79)	s		96
	15533-124 7 10-7 66.7kg Tom Lacey Stan Sheppard Fine start over fences when scoring at Chepstow (19.5f) in October and, while disappointing twice since, could revive now handicapping after wind op (also sports headgear), Third in 2021 Coral Cup.
10	DEATH DUTY (IRE) (30)			98
	402/76-571 11 10-6 66.2kg Gordon Elliott, Ireland J. W. Kennedy First success since his Grade 1-winning novice chase days in 28.2f Punchestown handicap 4 weeks ago, jumping fine and relishing the test. Remains well treated on best form and will be popular.

11	FANTASTIKAS (FR) (53)			97
	2213-1231 7 10-6 66.2kg Nigel Twiston-Davies Sam Twiston-Davies Progressive novice chaser, winning for a second time at Lingfield (3m) 7 weeks ago, leading again on the line. Big-field handicap scenario could suit him well and he's worth consideration.
12	VINTAGE CLOUDS (IRE) (20) (CD)	s		95
	7531-58P2 12 10-6 66.2kg Sue Smith Sean Quinlan A regular in this and won it on his fifth attempt fitted with cheekpieces last year, jumping much better. Best run since at Doncaster after wind op last time and can't be ruled out.
13	RAPPER (40) (D)			95
	127/4-P211 8 10-5 65.8kg Henry Daly Tom O'Brien Looks a thorough stayer and on a hat-trick after victories in small-field handicaps at Catterick and Wincanton over this trip. This is a whole different test up 6 lb and he would be a surprise winner.
14	DISCORDANTLY (IRE) (5lb/2kg ex) (9)	s		96
	UF6P-6F61 8 10-5 65.8kg Mrs J. Harrington, Ireland Robbie Power Jumped much better with cheekpieces fitted when resuming winning ways in 21f Leopardstown handicap earlier this month. Headgear must work as well a second time in this tougher contest.
15	GRUMPY CHARLEY (31)			97
	51116-513 7 10-4 65.3kg Chris Honour Bryan Carver (3lb/1kg) Multiple hurdles winner who has taken well to chasing, impressive when landing 22.5f Newbury novice handicap at Christmas. Fair run behind Bravemansgame there latest and could have more in the locker.
16	KILTEALY BRIGGS (IRE) (38)	s+t		98
	349-42131 8 10-3 64.9kg Jamie Snowden A. P. Heskin Has improved further over fences this season, landing a couple of small-field novices at Haydock and Musselburgh (gamely made all in first-time cheekpieces). This test should suit and worth a look.
17	FULL BACK (FR) (52) (C)			98
	11P2-7812 7 10-2 64.4kg Gary Moore Joshua Moore Better than ever when winning 26.3f handicap chase here (other course) on New Year's Day and ran well behind stalwart Yala Enki at Taunton 7 weeks ago. Big performance could be on the way again.
18	CORACH RAMBLER (IRE) (24) (CD, BF)	t		99
	161-3114U 8 10-2 64.4kg Lucinda Russell Derek Fox Improved to win novice handicaps over this trip at Aintree/here (other course) before a good run in the Classic Chase. Coming into it when unseating in Grade 2 won by Does He Know at Ascot. Respected.
19	RUN TO MILAN (IRE) (30)			95
	61-34421 10 10-0 63.5kg Victor Dartnall Alan Johns Good record at Exeter, making all in extended 3m veterans' handicap there last month. Has work to do in this much hotter environment.
20	OUR POWER (IRE) (17)	s		100
	4PP-51F13 7 10-0(9-12) 63.5kg (62.6kg) Sam Thomas Charlie Deutsch Has taken well to chasing, winning 2 small-field novice handicaps before a very encouraging effort in valuable 3m Kempton heat 17 days ago, finishing strongly after an unlucky run. Most interesting.
21	ONE MORE FLEURIE (IRE) (108)			94
	611F11-8P 8 10-0(9-11) 63.5kg (62.1kg) Ian Williams Charlie Todd (3lb/1kg) Highly progressive novice chaser last term who won his last 4 completed starts at up to 3m. Poor runs upon his return in the autumn though and needs a big comeback reappearing in a race like this.
22	BELARGUS (FR) (17)			96
	F231F1-F4 7 10-0(9-11) 63.5kg (62.1kg) Nick Fford Niall Houlihan (3lb/1kg) Dual chase winner at up to 20f at Sandown last term. Seen just twice this season, falling first in the Paddy Power Gold Cup here then well held over hurdles 17 days ago. Unproven over this far.

TIMEFORM VIEW:

One of the few races the home team has dominated and OUR POWER looks very interesting for the burgeoning Sam Thomas yard. He ran a very eye-catching race on his first go over 3m in a valuable Kempton handicap last month, finishing with a flourish having had plenty go wrong. He gets the vote over Corach Rambler, Tea Clipper and high-class Frodon. Floueur could be the pick of the Irish challengers.

Prominent-racers often fare well on the chase course, especially in races up to 3m. 4	NOT SO SLEEPY (79) (D) 0P/U157-15 10 11-10 74.4kg Hughie Morrison Proved better than ever when dead-heating with Epatante in Fighting Fifth at Newcastle but in nothing like the same form when well behind that same rival in Christmas Hurdle. Others preferred.			91
5	SAINT ROI (FR) (37) (CD) 11/1244-34 7 11-10 74.4kg W. P. Mullins, Ireland 2020 County winner and has developed into a smart hurdler, albeit one whose limitations have been exposed at the top level, finishing 9¼ lengths fourth to Honeysuckle in Irish Champion. Tongue tie on.	t		90
6	TEAHUPOO (FR) (24) (D) 1112-111 5 11-10 74.4kg Gordon Elliott, Ireland Took hurdle record to very impressive 6-7 when easily seeing off Darasso by 11 lengths in 2m Gowran Grade 3 last month. Whether he can trouble Honeysuckle remains to be seen but he's highly talented.			93
7	TOMMY'S OSCAR (IRE) (52) (D) 13-231111 7 11-10 74.4kg Ann Hamilton Small stable's remarkable season typified by this one's improvement, winning 3 handicaps before taking step up to Graded company in stride at Haydock. Well worth his place at the top table.			90
8	ZANAHIYR (IRE) (37) (D) 114-21222 5 11-10 74.4kg Gordon Elliott, Ireland Runner-up at Grade 1 level in Ireland on last 3 starts. Has 6½ lengths to make up with Honeysuckle from Irish Champion and likely playing for places again. Cheekpieces added to regular tongue tie.	s+t		92
9	EPATANTE (FR) (79) (CD) 11/123-311 8 11-3 71.2kg Nicky Henderson Won this in 2020 but could manage only third to Honeysuckle last year. Hasn't had to be at best to win Fighting Fifth (dead-heat) and Christmas Hurdle this winter and Honeysuckle looks too good again.			94
10	HONEYSUCKLE (37) (CD) 11/111-111 8 11-3 71.2kg Henry de Bromhead, Ireland Stretched her remarkable unbeaten record to 14 when landing third successive Irish Champion last month by 6½ lengths from Zanahiyr. Can't be opposed as she bids to become first mare to win this twice.			100

BETTING FORECAST:

4-7 Honeysuckle, 6-1 Appreciate It, 10-1 Teahupoo, 16-1 Epatante, 25-1 Zanahiyr, 33-1 Adagio, 50-1 bar

TIMEFORM VIEW:

HONEYSUCKLE is a mare out of the very top drawer and is strongly fancied to remain unbeaten and land a third successive win at this meeting. It's tough to see any of those she's accounted for previously troubling her so what threat there is may come from unexposed pair Teahupoo, who was very good at Gowran last time, and Appreciate It, so impressive in the Supreme last year but not seen since.

TIMEFORM 1-2-3:

RACE 5

CLOSE BROTHERS MARES' HURDLE (David Nicholson)
(Grade 1) (1) 4yo+ fillies and mares £120,000
2m3f200y (4010 Metres)

Going: Good to Soft (Soft in places)

Left handed, undulating. Stiff fences that place a premium on sound jumping. The last half mile is uphill, although the lead changes hands on the run-in less frequently than might be expected. Prominent-racers often fare well on the chase course, especially in races up to 3m. On the New Course, the hurdles track has just two flights in the last six furlongs, resulting in more emphasis on stamina; large-field races over two miles often go to hold-up horses, as there can be a tendency to go for home too soon. Jockeys often steer a wide course in the winter months searching for better ground and this can lead to trouble in-running towards the stand rail in the straight.

Pace Information: Strong

1	BURNING VICTORY (FR) (20) (C)	s	99
	W. P. Mullins, Ireland S. F. O'Keeffe 2020 Triumph winner who was an excellent second in Cesarewitch at Newmarket on Flat last autumn. Back to winning ways over hurdles when seeing off Queens Brook at Punchestown latest. Should go well.	11/77031 6 11-5 72.1kg
2	ECHOES IN RAIN (FR) (37)	h+t	99
	W. P. Mullins, Ireland Mr P. W. Mullins Won Punchestown Grade 1 novice last spring. Has found life tougher in open company this winter but latest 7 lengths third to Honeysuckle in Irish Champion very creditable. Up in trip.	1411-1343 6 11-5 72.1kg
3	HEAVEN HELP US (IRE) (37) (C)		96
	Paul Hennessy, Ireland D. E. Mullins Last year's Coral Cup winner. Not up to the Irish Champion at Leopardstown last time but prior to that she'd split Royal Kahala and Telmesomethinggirl there over Christmas. Place claims.	411-06425 8 11-5 72.1kg
4	INDEFATIGABLE (IRE) (31) (CD, BF)		95
	Paul Webber Rex Dingle Won Martin Pipe at 2020 Festival and good fourth in this 12 months ago. Added to her very good track record when narrowly denied by Martello Sky in 2½m handicap in December. Should give running.	6472-1623 9 11-5 72.1kg
5	MARIE'S ROCK (IRE) (31)	t	92
	Nicky Henderson Nico de Boinville Back on track since upped to 21f, winning Kempton handicap and Warwick listed event (badly hampered when pulled up early in between). This demands more but is unexposed at the trip.	1/73-371P1 7 11-5 72.1kg
6	MARTELLO SKY (66) (CD)		93
	Lucy Wadham Bryony Frost Improving mare who received 5 lb when edging out Indefatigable in a course handicap in December. Made it 3-4 for the season with small-field Sandown listed event win since.	1181-1411 6 11-5 72.1kg
7	MRS MILNER (IRE) (109) (C)	t	96
	Paul Nolan, Ireland B. J. Cooper Boltered up in the Pertemps Final at 2021 Festival. Made a winning return in Limerick mares' listed event in autumn but off since 15¼ lengths fourth in 3m Newbury Grade 2 in November.	1324F1-14 7 11-5 72.1kg
8	NADA TO PRADA (76)	s	87
	Michael Scudamore Richard Patrick Listed novice hurdle winner last term but hasn't gone on from a promising start over fences and faces a very stiff task back over the smaller obstacles.	1/2113-244 7 11-5 72.1kg
9	QUEENS BROOK (IRE) (20) (D)		96
	Gordon Elliott, Ireland J. W. Kennedy Saw off smart Ciel de Neige at Fairyhouse in November and warmed up for this with a good 1½ lengths second of 5 to Burning Victory at Punchestown (20.5f) last month. Heading in right direction.	13/123-212 7 11-5 72.1kg
10	STORMY IRELAND (FR) (73) (CD)		98
	W. P. Mullins, Ireland P. Townsend Won at Fairyhouse and Punchestown last spring and back to that sort of level when landing Grade 2 Relkeel over 2½m here on New Year's Day. Another solid contender for the stable.	22921-161 8 11-5 72.1kg

11	TELMESOMETHINGGIRL (IRE) (76) (C, D)	100
	Henry de Bromhead, Ireland Rachael Blackmore 2021 Dawn Run winner. Very good 1¼ lengths third to Royal Kahala and Heaven Help Us at Leopardstown over Christmas. Gave weight to the latter then and can turn the tables off levels. Leading claims.	31131-553 7 11-5 72.1kg
12	WESTERN VICTORY (IRE) (45)	93
	Emma Lavelle Tom Bellamy Useful hurdler who ended her time with Declan Queally in top form but has struggled at Grade 2 level in 2 runs since joining this yard. Likely up against it again.	31213143 9 11-5 72.1kg

12 DECLARED RUNNERS

BETTING FORECAST:

100-30 Telmesomethinggirl, 5-1 Queens Brook, 13-2 Burning Victory, 8-1 Echoes In Rain, 8-1 Stormy Ireland, 10-1 Mrs Milner, 14-1 Marie's Rock, 20-1 Heaven Help Us, 25-1 Indefatigable, 25-1 Martello Sky, 100-1 bar

TIMEFORM VIEW:

Last year's Dawn Run winner TELMESOMETHINGGIRL came out clear best at the weights when third in a Leopardstown Grade 3 over Christmas and a repeat of that form might be good enough here. Queens Brook may have just needed it when beaten by Burning Victory at Punchestown last month and can turn the tables on Willie Mullins' charge and fill the forecast spot. Stormy Ireland completes the shortlist.

BOODLES JUVENILE HANDICAP HURDLE (Fred Winter)
(Grade 3) (1) 4yo £80,000 2m87y (3300 Metres)

Going: Good to Soft (Soft in places)

Left handed, undulating. Stiff fences that place a premium on sound jumping. The last half mile is uphill, although the lead changes hands on the run-in less frequently than might be expected. Prominent-racers often fare well on the chase course, especially in races up to 3m. Pace Information: Extreme

1	PETIT TONNERRE (FR) (21) (D)	97
	111 4 11-10 74.4kg Jonjo O'Neill Won both starts in juvenile company in France last year and, having transferred to powerful connections, he landed the odds with plenty in hand in 3-runner handicap at Market Rasen. Lots more to come.	Jonjo O'Neill Jr.
2	THE TIDE TURNS (24) (D)	96
	144 4 11-9 73.9kg Gordon Elliott, Ireland Progressive on the AW when trained by Sir Mark Prescott and made a seamless transition to hurdling at Punchestown in January. Fourth in brace of Graded races since and more to come in handicaps.	J. W. Kennedy
3	BRAZIL (IRE) (31)	93
	6541 4 11-9 73.9kg Pdraig Roche, Ireland Just a maiden win for Aidan O'Brien on the level. Jolt of progress each hurdles start, running out a ready winner at Naas last month. Isn't obviously well-in but fair chance there's more to come.	M. P. Walsh
4	DOCTOR CHURCHILL (IRE) (43) (D, BF)	90
	48512 4 11-5 72.1kg Gordon Elliott, Ireland Didn't look straightforward on the level for David Evans but kept the mistakes down when won on fourth hurdles start at Limerick. Better form when second to next-time-out winner latest. More needed.	Jordan Colin Gainford (3lb/1kg)
5	EBASARI (IRE) (31) (D)	95
	163 4 11-3 71.2kg Gordon Elliott, Ireland No great shakes on the level for Mark Halford but left that form well behind when making successful hurdling debut at Cork. Unable to build on that twice since but retains potential as a handicapper.	Davy Russell
6	BRITZKA (IRE) (65) (D, BF)	93
	134 4 11-2 70.8kg Gordon Elliott, Ireland Failed to win on the level but transferred to Gordon Elliott and made perfect start over hurdles in December. Held back by his jumping to an extent since but had a wind op and could bounce back.	Robbie Power
7	BELL EX ONE (IRE) (154) (D)	92
	211 4 11-2 70.8kg Paul Nicholls Gained plenty of experience on the Flat and lot to like about way he's taken to hurdling, supplementing his Listowel win at Punchestown. Left R. P. Cody for £110,000. Now blinkered for powerful yard.	Harry Cobden
8	GAELIC WARRIOR (GER) (283)	100
	6-33 4 11-1 70.3kg W. P. Mullins, Ireland Useful form over hurdles, tongue tied when third in juveniles at Auteuil in May/June (beaten 6½ lengths by Sans Bruit, looks strong form). Saved for this by shrewd connections and looks well-in.	P. Townend
9	WHITE PEPPER (IRE) (17) (D)	89
	513133 4 11-0 69.9kg Gavin Patrick Cromwell, Ireland Landed a brace of juvenile contests in Ireland but limitations rather exposed in better company last couple of outings and opening mark looks too high.	L. P. Dempsey
10	HMS SEAHORSE (IRE) (34) (D)	99
	321 4 11-0 69.9kg Paul Nolan, Ireland Fairly useful maiden on the Flat and landed the odds at the third time of asking over hurdles at Fairyhouse last month, nicely clear with a next-time-out winner. Opening mark looks very fair.	B. J. Cooper

11	PRAIRIE DANCER (IRE) (17)	94
	2632 4 10-12 68.9kg Joseph Patrick O'Brien, Ireland Yet to match Flat form over hurdles, looking a tricky ride despite finishing second in a Grade 3 at Fairyhouse 3 weeks ago. Re-fitting of blinkers may help his cause now handicapping.	J. J. Slevin
12	FEIGH (IRE) (31)	88
	17324 4 10-12 68.9kg W. P. Mullins, Ireland Didn't race on Flat but that didn't prevent her making a winning debut at Killarney in August. In top hands but limit does already look to be established having raced 4 times since without success.	D. E. Mullins
13	IBERIQUE DU SEUIL (FR) (65) (D)	91
	22213 4 10-12 68.9kg Gordon Elliott, Ireland Workmanlike when landing the odds in 18-runner juvenile at Cork in December. Behind White Pepper and Feigh at Fairyhouse and needs to improve a lot to defy this mark.	Denis O'Regan
14	SAINT SEGAL (FR) (51) (D)	99
	121 4 10-12 68.9kg Mrs Jane Williams Excellent second in Grade 1 Juvenile Hurdle at Chepstow and flanked that with wins at Bangor and Warwick. Lacks experience of some but he's a good prospect and now tongue tied for handicap debut.	Chester Williams (3lb/1kg)
15	CHAMPION GREEN (IRE) (44)	97
	42P1 4 10-11 68.5kg Joseph Patrick O'Brien, Ireland Needed just 4 runs to reach a useful level on the Flat for this yard and settled better when ridden more aggressively to get off the mark at Naas in January. Scope for better as a hurdler.	Rachael Blackmore
16	SEA SESSIONS (46)	94
	2212 4 10-11 68.5kg Ross O'Sullivan, Ireland Inferior to most of these on the level but a much better hurdler, successful at Aintree before an excellent second under a penalty at Doncaster (both against her own sex). Well-run race would suit.	Jonathan Burke
17	MILLDAM (FR) (145)	93
	333 4 10-11 68.5kg Jamie Snowden Fairly useful form over hurdles, much improved when 5¼ lengths third of 9 to Ivanohe in juvenile at Auteuil for A. Chaille-Chaille. Changed hands for €145,000 in November and usual headgear off.	Gavin Sheehan
18	DOCTOR BROWN BEAR (IRE) (78)	92
	42344 4 10-11 68.5kg Martin Brassil, Ireland Yet to be out of the frame over hurdles and ran right up to form when fourth at Leopardstown on final start for Brendan Duke in December. Tongue tie fitted starting out for shrewd yard.	D. J. O'Keeffe
19	TOO FRIENDLY (94) (D)	97
	114 4 10-11 68.5kg Dan Skelton Flat winner for George Scott and carried that ability over to hurdles, winning juveniles at Stratford and Newcastle during the autumn. Had a wind op since respectable effort in Grade 2 company.	Harry Skelton
20	FOREVER WILLIAM (45) (D)	97
	133 4 10-11 68.5kg Alan King Fairly useful maiden on Flat who struck at first time of asking over hurdles at Newbury in December. Similar form when third twice in Graded company since and a visor now reached for.	Tom Cannon
21	SWINGING LONDON (IRE) (34) (D)	92
	331 4 10-10 68.0kg Olly Murphy Runner-up 3 times on Flat in France and third both starts for Ellmarie Holden in December. Landed the odds in smooth fashion for new yard last month and he can leave bare form behind. Tongue tied.	Aidan Coleman
22	SKYCUTTER (FR) (24) (D)	96
	1182 4 10-8 67.1kg Philip Kirby Useful on Flat and impressive when landing first 2 starts in juvenile hurdles at around 2m late last year. No chance with Porticello last time and he retains potential as a handicapper.	Thomas Dowson

BETTING FORECAST:

11-4 Gaelic Warrior, 7-1 The Tide Turns, 11-1 Brazil, 16-1 Champion Green, 18-1 Saint Segal, 18-1 Petit Tonnerre, 22-1 Hms Seahorse, 22-1 Ebasari, 25-1 Britzka, 25-1 Doctor Brown Bear, 28-1 Too Friendly, 33-1 Bell Ex One, 40-1 bar

TIMEFORM VIEW:

An ante-post plunge has materialised on GAELIC WARRIOR despite his never having raced in Britain or Ireland and it's easy to see why given how his form in France has worked out. Saved for this by top connections, he could be a handicap blot. Of the others, Ebasari, respected on hurdling debut form now handicapping, and Petit Tonnerre, still very much unexposed, head the opposition.

Prominent-racers often fare well on the chase course, especially in races up to 3m. On the New Course, the hurdles track has just two flights in the last six furlongs, resulting in more emphasis on stamina; large-field races over two miles often go to hold-up horses, as there can be a tendency to go for home too soon. 2	BRAESIDE (IRE) (21) 5226-14P3 8 11-6 72.6kg  Mr Robert James Has garnered plenty of experience over the larger obstacles, his sole success coming in handicap company at Cork in October. Relative test of speed against him at Navan and stamina his forte.	s	95
3	ONTHEROPES (IRE) (47) 43P/2-1465 8 11-6 72.6kg  Mr T. Hamilton Back from near one-year lay-off and better than ever when smooth winner of the Munster National in October. Unable to build on that since but does shape like he's worth a go at this trip. Tongue tied.	s+t	95
4	PATS FANCY (IRE) (31) 2P06-4112 7 11-6 72.6kg  Mr B. O'Neill Has left hurdles form trailing in its wake over fences this term, winning a brace of Chepstow handicaps (23.6f) in December before finding only a top prospect too good at Newbury. Thorough stayer.		92
5	RUN WILD FRED (IRE) (76) (BF) 55222-212 8 11-6 72.6kg  Mr J. J. Codd Really turned a corner since fitted with blinkers, making all in 16-runner Troytown Chase before a respectable second in Grade 1 Neville Hotels Novices' Chase. Classy and demands of this will suit.	b	100
6	STATTLER (IRE) (44) 2/3134-311 7 11-6 72.6kg  Mr P. W. Mullins Useful over hurdles but already far better chaser, displaying willing attitude when landing 7-runner Grade 3 at Naas in January (3m). That form already right up there and trip should be within range.		99
7	VANILLIER (FR) (44) (C) 201-43133 7 11-6 72.6kg  Mr D. O'Connor Most impressive when landing 16-runner Albert Bartlett a year ago. Hasn't quite hit the heights over fences this season and has work to do with Run Wild Fred and Stattler but he may yet do better.	t	96

BETTING FORECAST:

9-4 Stattler, 5-2 Run Wild Fred, 9-2 Vanillier, 11-1 Ontheropes, 11-1 Braeside, 11-1 Pats Fancy, 150-1 bar

TIMEFORM VIEW:

The presence of classy trio RUN WILD FRED, Stattler and Vanillier has diluted the field but separating that trio isn't easy. The first-named runner has plenty of experience over fences to call upon, which could be significant and if he can get into his usual rhythm since fitted with blinkers he will be a tough nut to crack.
